The Chateau Garden

The Chateau Garden tour begins in front of the garden facade of the chateau. On the ground floor, there are several doorways leading through the facade to a spacious and richly decorated entrance hall. The entrance hall is a prime example of the grand baroque style, characterized by its high ceilings, intricate moldings, and ornate plasterwork. The hall is decorated with large mirrors and statues, and features a grand staircase leading to the upper floors. At the top of the staircase, there is a grand salon with a large painting of a battle scene, which is said to depict a historical event from the reign of the chateau's owner. From the salon, visitors can see the grand prospect of the garden, with its lawns, flower beds, and fountains. The garden is a classic example of the baroque garden style, which emphasizes symmetry and grandeur. It is laid out in a series of formal parterres, with hedges and statues placed at strategic points to create a balanced composition. The garden is home to a number of important statues and sculptures, including a bronze statue of a knight on horseback, which is said to represent a local hero. The garden is also known for its beautiful flower beds, which are filled with colorful blooms throughout the year. Visitors can explore the garden at their own pace, enjoying the beauty of the landscape and the history of the chateau and its gardens.

The Chateau Garden is a good example of a baroque garden, characterized by symmetry, grandeur, and formal design. It was created in the late 17th century and is a fine example of the style.

The Chateau Garden is a good example of a baroque garden, characterized by symmetry, grandeur, and formal design. It was created in the late 17th century and is a fine example of the style.

We will start the Chateau Garden tour in front of the garden facade of the chateau. On the ground floor, there are several doorways leading through the facade to a spacious and richly decorated entrance hall. The entrance hall is a prime example of the grand baroque style, characterized by its high ceilings, intricate moldings, and ornate plasterwork. The hall is decorated with large mirrors and statues, and features a grand staircase leading to the upper floors. At the top of the staircase, there is a grand salon with a large painting of a battle scene, which is said to depict a historical event from the reign of the chateau's owner. From the salon, visitors can see the grand prospect of the garden, with its lawns, flower beds, and fountains. The garden is a classic example of the baroque garden style, which emphasizes symmetry and grandeur. It is laid out in a series of formal parterres, with hedges and statues placed at strategic points to create a balanced composition. The garden is home to a number of important statues and sculptures, including a bronze statue of a knight on horseback, which is said to represent a local hero. The garden is also known for its beautiful flower beds, which are filled with colorful blooms throughout the year. Visitors can explore the garden at their own pace, enjoying the beauty of the landscape and the history of the chateau and its gardens.

The Chateau Garden is a good example of a baroque garden, characterized by symmetry, grandeur, and formal design. It was created in the late 17th century and is a fine example of the style.

We will start the Chateau Garden tour in front of the garden facade of the chateau. On the ground floor, there are several doorways leading through the facade to a spacious and richly decorated entrance hall. The entrance hall is a prime example of the grand baroque style, characterized by its high ceilings, intricate moldings, and ornate plasterwork. The hall is decorated with large mirrors and statues, and features a grand staircase leading to the upper floors. At the top of the staircase, there is a grand salon with a large painting of a battle scene, which is said to depict a historical event from the reign of the chateau's owner. From the salon, visitors can see the grand prospect of the garden, with its lawns, flower beds, and fountains. The garden is a classic example of the baroque garden style, which emphasizes symmetry and grandeur. It is laid out in a series of formal parterres, with hedges and statues placed at strategic points to create a balanced composition. The garden is home to a number of important statues and sculptures, including a bronze statue of a knight on horseback, which is said to represent a local hero. The garden is also known for its beautiful flower beds, which are filled with colorful blooms throughout the year. Visitors can explore the garden at their own pace, enjoying the beauty of the landscape and the history of the chateau and its gardens.

The Chateau Garden is a good example of a baroque garden, characterized by symmetry, grandeur, and formal design. It was created in the late 17th century and is a fine example of the style.

We will start the Chateau Garden tour in front of the garden facade of the chateau. On the ground floor, there are several doorways leading through the facade to a spacious and richly decorated entrance hall. The entrance hall is a prime example of the grand baroque style, characterized by its high ceilings, intricate moldings, and ornate plasterwork. The hall is decorated with large mirrors and statues, and features a grand staircase leading to the upper floors. At the top of the staircase, there is a grand salon with a large painting of a battle scene, which is said to depict a historical event from the reign of the chateau's owner. From the salon, visitors can see the grand prospect of the garden, with its lawns, flower beds, and fountains. The garden is a classic example of the baroque garden style, which emphasizes symmetry and grandeur. It is laid out in a series of formal parterres, with hedges and statues placed at strategic points to create a balanced composition. The garden is home to a number of important statues and sculptures, including a bronze statue of a knight on horseback, which is said to represent a local hero. The garden is also known for its beautiful flower beds, which are filled with colorful blooms throughout the year. Visitors can explore the garden at their own pace, enjoying the beauty of the landscape and the history of the chateau and its gardens.

The Chateau Garden is a good example of a baroque garden, characterized by symmetry, grandeur, and formal design. It was created in the late 17th century and is a fine example of the style.

We will start the Chateau Garden tour in front of the garden facade of the chateau. On the ground floor, there are several doorways leading through the facade to a spacious and richly decorated entrance hall. The entrance hall is a prime example of the grand baroque style, characterized by its high ceilings, intricate moldings, and ornate plasterwork. The hall is decorated with large mirrors and statues, and features a grand staircase leading to the upper floors. At the top of the staircase, there is a grand salon with a large painting of a battle scene, which is said to depict a historical event from the reign of the chateau's owner. From the salon, visitors can see the grand prospect of the garden, with its lawns, flower beds, and fountains. The garden is a classic example of the baroque garden style, which emphasizes symmetry and grandeur. It is laid out in a series of formal parterres, with hedges and statues placed at strategic points to create a balanced composition. The garden is home to a number of important statues and sculptures, including a bronze statue of a knight on horseback, which is said to represent a local hero. The garden is also known for its beautiful flower beds, which are filled with colorful blooms throughout the year. Visitors can explore the garden at their own pace, enjoying the beauty of the landscape and the history of the chateau and its gardens.

The Chateau Garden is a good example of a baroque garden, characterized by symmetry, grandeur, and formal design. It was created in the late 17th century and is a fine example of the style.

We will start the Chateau Garden tour in front of the garden facade of the chateau. On the ground floor, there are several doorways leading through the facade to a spacious and richly decorated entrance hall. The entrance hall is a prime example of the grand baroque style, characterized by its high ceilings, intricate moldings, and ornate plasterwork. The hall is decorated with large mirrors and statues, and features a grand staircase leading to the upper floors. At the top of the staircase, there is a grand salon with a large painting of a battle scene, which is said to depict a historical event from the reign of the chateau's owner. From the salon, visitors can see the grand prospect of the garden, with its lawns, flower beds, and fountains. The garden is a classic example of the baroque garden style, which emphasizes symmetry and grandeur. It is laid out in a series of formal parterres, with hedges and statues placed at strategic points to create a balanced composition. The garden is home to a number of important statues and sculptures, including a bronze statue of a knight on horseback, which is said to represent a local hero. The garden is also known for its beautiful flower beds, which are filled with colorful blooms throughout the year. Visitors can explore the garden at their own pace, enjoying the beauty of the landscape and the history of the chateau and its gardens.
The Chateau Garden

Avala Pine (Pinus cantabrigiensis) growing as a single tree in the park. The tree was planted in the late 19th century and serves as a landmark. Today, the whole pine is an impressive sight and it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint. In the late 19th century, the Scots Pine was planted as a single tree in the park. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint. In the late 19th century, the Scots Pine was planted as a single tree in the park. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Chinese Pavilion

The Chinese Pavilion is an interesting architectural feature in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a pavilion. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Long Pond

The Long Pond is a large water body in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a pond. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Red Bridge

The Red Bridge is an interesting architectural feature in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a bridge. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Swan Lake

The Swan Lake is a large water body in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a lake. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Vase Bridge

The Vase Bridge is an interesting architectural feature in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a bridge. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Long Pond

The Long Pond is a large water body in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a pond. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Red Bridge

The Red Bridge is an interesting architectural feature in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a bridge. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Swan Lake

The Swan Lake is a large water body in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a lake. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Vase Bridge

The Vase Bridge is an interesting architectural feature in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a bridge. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Long Pond

The Long Pond is a large water body in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a pond. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Red Bridge

The Red Bridge is an interesting architectural feature in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a bridge. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Swan Lake

The Swan Lake is a large water body in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a lake. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Vase Bridge

The Vase Bridge is an interesting architectural feature in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a bridge. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Long Pond

The Long Pond is a large water body in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a pond. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Red Bridge

The Red Bridge is an interesting architectural feature in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a bridge. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Swan Lake

The Swan Lake is a large water body in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a lake. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.

The Vase Bridge

The Vase Bridge is an interesting architectural feature in the Chateau Garden. It was constructed in the late 19th century and served as a bridge. Today, it is a popular viewpoint. In the afternoon you can admire the sunlit trunk of the Scots Pine and it is a popular viewpoint.